COUNTRY PURSUITS

Looking for luxe? You'd be hard pressed to find somewhere more heavenly than newly-opened Ballyfin. Having just undergone an eight-year restoration, this magnificent stately home-cum-15-bedroom country hotel is all 17th century splendour, and more. Think 600 acres of parkland with a 28-acre lake, ancient woods, follies and grottoes, surrounding a lavish mansion (and princess bedrooms that dreams are made of) that sublimely marries modern luxury with classic style.
